

Lieutenant H. R. Bowers.

The men refused to discuss the details of the disaster.

"The last chapter will never be written," said Wright. "The death of the captain and his men was too terrible for description. The story would serve no purpose save to gratify morbid curiosity."

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

Battle Creek, Mich.—Judge Ben B. Lindsey, Denver, who has been at sanitarium recuperating from effects of operation, ordered to stay in his room indefinitely.

St. Johns, Mich.—Rev. C. J. Gregory, ex-pastor of Baptist Church, sentenced to ten months in reformatory for revolting crime against Ina Marshall, 11. Pleaded guilty.

New York.—Viola Stoll, 17, whose home is in St. Louis, sentenced to Bedford Reformatory for stealing $5,000 worth of jewels from Frank Oakley, circus performer, who had befriended her and given her position as housekeeper.

New York.—Poisoned needles in liver and stomach caused death of Anna, 11-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sorenson. Nurse suspected.

Paris.—Rembrandt's picture, "Bathsheba," was sold for $200,000 at sale of collection of Baron Steengracht.

Danville, Ill.—A. J. Steele, occupying Pullman berth on Wabash Western Express, found all his clothes had been stolen. No clew.

Kansas City, Mo.—Man armed with ax murdered Arthur Keller, a railroad man, and his daughter, 7, while they slept.

Brussels.—100,000 scarfpins bearing her initials have been ordered by Queen Elizabeth, to be sold in the streets on her birthday, July 25, in aid of anti-tuberculosis campaign.

Washington.—Officials of Public Health and Marine Hospital Service will open warfare on mosquito, Vienna.—Special dispatch announces that hostilities have broken out between Serbia and Bulgaria.

Portland, Ore.—Mrs. Rena B. Morrow, acquitted of murder of husband, is aiding Edmund E. C. VonKlein, much married man accused of stealing diamonds worth $3,500 from Miss Ethel Newcomb.

New York.—650 tombstone cutters are on strike for more pay and half holiday Saturday.

Alpena, Mich.—$2,000 business and professional men and farmers constructed more than 250 miles of roadway between Bay City and Mackinaw in one day.

Boston.—Because the water was too cold, Isaac Zimm, who attempted suicide in St. Charles river, shouted to policeman to pull him out.

Milwaukee.—Judge Eschweiler gave Wm. Schwarting 24 hours to quit town when ex-wife said he annoyed her.

Boston.—Miss Helen Keller will undertake an extensive lecture tour next winter.

Cincinnati.—Mrs. Christina Kunzelman told Coroner Foertmeyer that her husband, killed by Robert Huber, Chicago, admitted before his death that he had had improper relations with Mrs. Huber.

Champaign, Ill.—Wm. W. Moore, a Chicago inventor, became victim of asphyxia in hotel here. Can remember nothing.

London.—One of Queen Mary's maids of honor, in sympathy with militant suffragettes, presented petition to Queen asking that she cancel rule forbidding members of household to belong to militant suffragette organization.

Benton Harbor, Mich.—Paul Nickels, farmer, has coughed up several small trout. Physicians believe he swallowed tiny minnows which grew in his stomach.

New York.—Curio hunters from all over the world gathered to bid for famous old Astor House belongings.